

EVANGELICAL CONVENTION INTERESTING

The Fourth annual convention of the Evangelical Women's Federation North Illinois District was held on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 26 and 27, 1928, at St. Paul's Evangelical church, Rev. John C. Voeks, Pastor, Palatine, Ill. Beautiful indeed was the scene which greeted us as we alighted from the train and walked down the leafy arched streets of Palatine, beholding here and there most gorgeously hued trees which were just beginning to be touched by the brush of autumn.

Upon our arrival at the church, our convention headquarters, we were most cordially greeted with pleasant smiles and a sunny "good morning," by our friendly hostesses the ladies of St. Paul's, and we could not help but at once feel very much at home. As we registered, relieved ourselves of our wraps and grips and made our way into the church auditorium proper, our attention was held by a most artistically lettered banner hung across the chancel, containing the words of the convention theme, "Thy Kingdom Come."

After the essentials of registering, and a general social period, the convention delegates and visitors were invited to the church basement where the ladies of St. Paul's had prepared a most wonderfully delicious dinner.

Two p.m. was the time set for the convention assembly, and at that time, the auditorium resounded with the beautiful strains of the prelude, "Fantasia in G Minor" by Bach, most splendidly and artistically rendered by the convention chairman of music, Mr. Theophil Voeks, son of our host and hostess, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Voeks, and likewise instructor at the American Conservatory of Music, Chicago. May we extend our grateful appreciation to Mr. Voeks at this time for the splendid musical program which he presented throughout the entire convention session.

The convention was opened with Mrs. H. J. Schick, president of the North Illinois District, presiding, by a song service, led by Miss Henrietta Schick, of Chicago. Devotions at this time were read and prayer offered by Rev. George Koebel, Des Plaines, asking for divine guidance in all that would take place during these convention days, and that the splendid work which our women are doing through out this district, and in fact all over this earth, might be prospered.

Words of welcome were next spoken by the convention chairman, Mrs. J. C. Voeks, president of the Arlington Heights Federation of the North Illinois District, in which she expressed the happiness of the ladies of Palatine in being able to offer their services and their homes to these delegates and visitors of the convention. She was followed by Mrs. L. Born, president of the local St. Paul's ladies' aid, expressing also her happiness, as well as that of her society in being able to serve the convention in this capacity.

We were next favored with a beautiful duet, most excellently rendered, by Miss Vera Porter, and Mr. T. Voeks, duet entitled "Hark, Hark My Soul," by Shelley, Mrs. Voeks at the organ.

The convention theme was next discussed in the form of an address by the pastor of the local convention church, Rev. J. C. Voeks, address entitled "Thy Kingdom Come." He pointed out that as children of God we belong to this Kingdom, and that when we pray "Thy Kingdom Come," we do not pray for something far in the future. God's Kingdom is nothing new. It has been brought to this earth years ago, when God was established on earth when God made man and placed him in the garden of Eden, when he made for man an helpmeet, "And God was with them." That was the beginning of the Kingdom of God on earth. But Satan attacked God and His Kingdom and truly made himself prince of this world. But God took care of his Kingdom so that it was not destroyed, and promised salvation of his children, sending them prophets to teach the people of God through great sacrifices so that they may know God. Later He sent forth His son, borne of a woman, and this Jesus, the Son of God, came and spoke to the people and said, "Repent, Ye, and believe the Gospel," and went through the country preaching and teaching, calling all men to repentance, and inviting them to enter the Kingdom of God. When we pray, "Thy Kingdom Come," we think of this great Kingdom of God, and there is no name on earth whereby the children of man may be saved except in Jesus, and unless through Him, they enter into this Kingdom of God.

The convention hymn, that great hymn of praise and thanksgiving "Come Thou Almighty King," was next sung by the entire assembly. The next address was presented in the German language by a woman of great intelligence, whom we, of the Evangelical synod held in great esteem, the daughter of one of our pioneer pastors, who came to this country some twenty years ago from the Fatherland across the sea, to found churches in the middle west among the German peoples who had migrated there.

State Road Property Owners Ask For Business Expansion

The business district of south state road will soon be enlarged if the appeal board acts favorably upon a petition that has been signed by the property owners on the west side of that street. The board has already acted favorably upon similar zoning for the east side of the street.

The requirement by a syndicate of the Klemm property east of state road brought forth a request for a business district for the 150 acres contained therein. Adjoining property owners are now making a similar request. The change will not become official until after the village board has acted upon the recommendation of the appeal board. It is understood that both projects will be handled together.

Reject All Bids On New Village Hall

Bids were opened by the Arlington Heights village board Monday night for the erection of the new village hall. Due to lack of competition bids and incompleteness of others, the board upon recommendation of the architect rejected all bids and in an advertisement published in this issue, is asking for new bids upon the project. The board also authorized a few changes that may lessen the cost to some extent.

Wall Paper And Paint Houses Reorganized As N. Webber Co.

It is now N. Webber company. The recent death of Mr. N. Webber proprietor of the Arlington Heights Paint Store, necessitated a reorganization and has resulted in the formation of the firm of N. Webber Co., who will conduct the former store of Mr. Webber in Arlington Heights and the DesPlaines Paint and Wall Paper Co., operated by Orval Baldwin in DesPlaines. With the increased buying power, this firm will be able to meet prices of the largest Chicago houses and quote to local contractors an attractive wholesale price. It may not be generally known that this firm furnished 75 percent of the painting material used at Arlington Park and nearly all of such material used at Stonage.

Children Being Taught How To Brush Teeth

If your children seem to be brushing their teeth more often than ever before, just ask them to see the tooth brushing chart they brought from school, and you will understand what it is all about. Through the courtesy of Colgate & Company, Miss Jackson has been given enough tooth paste and tooth brushing charts for each grade school child in the village schools. The chart provides for the teeth to be brushed each morning and each evening for three months. If the chart is carefully kept and the marks entered for each day, the child will receive a "health pin." The chart carries through until January 5, next. But, of course, though the child may not realize it, the principal gain thru this contest is the fact that they are forming the very good habit of brushing their teeth twice daily and a habit once formed is easily kept. As they were told in school, a thorough brushing of the teeth is necessary for the benefit which we expect to derive, brush them inside, outside, up and down, and every side, be sure the job has been well done.

Perhaps the dentists are wondering what they are going to do the first week in January when all these children come in for the charts to be signed, for we are sure there are going to be several hundred of the children complete their charts. But Miss Jackson has instructed the teachers and children as to this, she plans to gather all the charts together and take them to the dentist to whom the child goes for his or her dental work. She has asked the children to write their dentists name in pencil on the chart before it is handed over. The chart provides for the child to bring home with them and cooperate with the youngsters in their task, for it costs nothing but a little time and effort and no parent nor child can afford to neglect the teeth of the growing child. If your child has not been to the dentist and had his or her corrective work done, try and have them go soon, the earlier they go the less work, hence less expense and perhaps suffering. Some of the children have not visited the dentist since the Dental Survey, which we had in our schools last winter, and right now is the time to encourage the children by having their teeth put in good condition and helping them to keep them clean.

Cermak Country Towns Booster Club Holds Dance And Frolic

On Saturday evening, Oct. 13, the Cermak Country Towns Booster Club will hold their second annual dance and frolic at Alf's Hall, Niles Center, Ill.

There will be speaking by A. J. Cermak and other prominent speakers of the Democratic party, which will be followed by dancing and singing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson of First avenue are very happy over the arrival of their second daughter, born last Saturday. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

QUESTION OF TREES STILL IS UNDECIDED

By mutual agreement between the attorneys in the case, Attorney Mason for the objectors and Attorney Williams for the county the work connected with the removal of the large elms between the Mors parkway and the Northwest highway at Arlington Heights, has been stopped until such time as a decision can be rendered by the judge. Three of the trees are down. Four others have been cut to such extent that it is doubtful if they could be saved, even thru efforts of a "tree doctor." Three delays in the hearing of this case have occurred and it will not again come up before the court until next Monday. In the meantime workmen are laying out on the job, it being an open secret that should decision be against the objectors, the contractor will ask damages for loss of time.

STREET OR ELMS? COURT TO DECIDE

43 Trees Stand in Path of Road - Builders in Arlington Heights - Forty-three elm trees, with leaves showing autumn colors in Arlington Park, where the subject of learned, extended and heated argument today before Superior Judge Denis E. Sullivan as one Arlington Parkers sought to have the court enjoin Cook county from cutting them down to make way for a projected widening of Northwest highway.

"Those elms," declared Attorney George A. Mason, "have been with us seventy years. The highway was built just as effectively built to the north of them. And Cook county has no legal right whatever to come into the sacred confines of the village and usurp the power delegated by law exclusively to the board of village trustees."

Citizens' Affections Split - The elms, it appeared in the argument, are beloved by some Arlington Parkers and not so beloved by others.

The trees stand in a 17-foot park between Mors parkway and the present northwest highway. The county commissioners propose to cut them down and fill in the park, making Northwest highway and Mors parkway one big road. This plan, it is contended by Attorney Charles A. Williams, appearing for the county meets with the desire of shop owners along the parkway who don't want their shop windows shaded.

On the other hand, some citizens of the village, among them Louis Helm, retired real estate man, who is complainant in the hearing, feel that the axmen should spare the trees.

County Authority At Issue - The point at law is: Can the village board delegate the power to widen the street to the county commissioners?

Helm's plan is to build the additional twenty feet on the side opposite the trees, but highway authorities contend this is not feasible from an engineering standpoint, since the crown, or highest part of the road, would not then be in the center according to highway plans. Mr. Mason explained that the suit is being brought because the county highway department has refused to alter its plans.

The litigation in connection with the street widening has come to the attention of the Chicago press and the following appeared in the Daily News Wednesday evening.

Organize School Boy Safety Patrols In Co. Rural Schools

Due to the increased number of paved roads in the county and the resulting increase in danger to school children, County Supt. E. J. Tobin is having "safety patrol" organized in many of the rural schools. The movement was and is sponsored by the Chicago Motor Club, which is doing wonderful work in trying to reduce the number of children killed each year by autos.

The schools in Division One to organize such patrols are Nos. 5, 6, 42, 43, 11, 50, 49, 54. The work will be in full swing soon with about five boys from each school to form the patrol.

As a further part of the program the Motor Club issues monthly safety posters which will be placed in every room in the schools of the county.

Bensenville Gasoline Station Is Robbed

The Airline Automotive Co. filling station and accessory store located on Irving Park Boulevard at Bensenville, was broken into by robbers, between the hours of 12 midnight and 7 a. m. Tuesday. The vandals escaped with a large loot of tires, accessories and confectionary that were carried in stock for sale to passing motorists.

Mr. A. Schmidt, owner of the station, came to work at 7 a. m. and discovered that the Eastside window had been jimmied and the robbers apparently took their loot out via this exit. This is the third time in three years that this station has been robbed, and Mr. Schmidt states if this continues they soon will have him run out of business.

DePage county police are working on the case, and it is hoped they will find some trace of the thieves.

SATURDAY SEES 'OLD RIVALS' IN ACTION AGAIN

Chicago may have her three big college football games this week-end when Notre Dame entertains the Midshipmen on Soldier's Field, and when Chicago plays host to the boys from out where the tall corn grows, and the Wildcats from Evanston are buying their claws in Ohio's stalwarts, but here in Arlington Heights most all of the barber shop and street corner conversation is turning toward the first annual Arlington-Palatine football fracas, scheduled for tomorrow afternoon on the local gridiron.

When football was first started this fall in the little town over west it was not expected that they would be able to put out a very strong aggregation due more or less to the scarcity of material and their lack of previous knowledge of pigskin pursuits. But the boys went to it with a will and have shown unexpected strength so far this season. They have tried their wares on two different occasions and they came out very creditably both times. They tied their first game, and Monday of this week emerged victorious over the strong team of Libertyville.

In second game they have proven that they are surprisingly well drilled in fundamentals and now tomorrow are stepping out in combat for their first time against the first team of one of their rival conference schools.

It seems that there are quite a quantity of folks both old and young, residing in Palatine and the Heights that live from one year to the next, waiting for an opportunity to whet up their old rivalries in some fashion or other. Here of late, they have been having to depend upon the high school basketball teams, but these affairs have become too tame for their jaded tastes, so they are eagerly awaiting the more rugged sport tomorrow.

Both squads are being primed for this game. Arlington rules as top heavy favorite, but have been in more or less of a lethargy this week after the gruelling Warren battle of last Saturday. It is a sure thing that the Palatine crew will be out fighting with their backs to the wall and when two teams so disposed, hook up, it is no surprising matter if the favorite buckles up and falls by the wayside. Then, too, this is the type of game where everything is tried and when a game opens up in this fashion surprises are plentiful.

From the interest indicated by advance ticket sales at the two schools, this week, there will be a record early season crowd out to witness the clash of these two old rivals. Both teams are eagerly awaiting the opening whistle, so when their sturdy captains line up their respective warriors against the toss of the coin to determine their choice of battle fronts fans may feel sure of an afternoon of thrills. The opening kickoff is scheduled for 2:45 o'clock.

Northwest Highway To Have Another Business Place

Business places can be built on the Northwest highway in Palatine as well as in Arlington Heights. Mr. Moehling who recently moved to Palatine from Arlington Heights purchasing the Swanson service station, has started excavating for a 24x40 business building that will be used as a restaurant and ice cream parlor.

Palatine Resident Appeals To Arlington Police; Arrest Husband

Judge Byrd and Chief Skoog say that Palatine people can settle their own family quarrels hereafter. It was Monday night that the man and his wife returned to Palatine on the same train. The woman, displaying a black eye, asked that her husband be arrested, giving as one reason that he was carrying a gun. The Palatine officer had been there before and was not inclined to do any arresting but he did investigate the charge that he had a gun in his possession. A few minutes later, the officer found the husband, who also displayed a black eye, stating that he had received it from his wife and the one she had was only the receipt for the one she had first given him. The revolver proved to be only a trick cigarette holder. The officer "washed his hands" of the affair. Whereupon the Arlington Heights officers were invited into the case by friend with As usual the wife after having her husband lodged in jail refused to prosecute. The next time this woman wants the police to step into the family quarrel, she will have to go to Mt. Prospect or DesPlaines say the Arlington officers.

American Legion Post Elects Officers

Merle Guild Post of the American Legion held its regular election of officers Tuesday evening and the following were elected as officers for the ensuing term: A. F. Wetterman, commander; Geo. Palmer, senior vice; Herman Simon, junior vice; A. Russell, Adj.; Chas. J. Miller, finance officer; A. Billman, chaplain; A. Rascher Sgt. at Arms. The final transfer of property has been completed whereby the Legion takes title to the former Whiting property on Campbell street. The boys are yet undecided whether to establish their club house at once or to rent the property for a year.

Judge Byrd Marries Arlington Couple

John Schuster and Miss Josephine Hummel were united in marriage by Judge Byrd at his office last Saturday afternoon. A few hours later, a second ceremony was held in St. James Catholic church. Mr. Schuster is employed in the tailor shop of J. Lindner, Jr., and has only been in this country six months. His bride has only been here four months and was employed in the old folks home. They are residing in the flat over the jewelry store.

Reese Hardware Store Will Move This Month

Wm. Reese expects to take possession of his new store this month. It is ready for the finishing touches on the part of the workmen. He is having many inquiries for the flats on the second and third floors.

Will Give Away Lot At Palatine On Next Sunday

The William M. Anderson & Co., who are the selling agents for a close-in subdivision at Palatine, corner of the Northwest highway and Chicago avenue are offering free next Sunday a lot 50x132, valued at $835. The subdivision is a part of the former Bicknase place and is in the so called older part of the village. An announcement on page four of this issue tells about the offer.

DIVISION ONE HOLDS AN ALL DAY MEETING

The annual fall One Day Institute of Division One was held in the New Era School on Higgins road on Friday, Oct. 5. Every teacher was present at the meeting. Dinner was served in the basement of the school by the ladies of the district and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. As the program closed, motion pictures were taken of the group and these will be a part of the achievement program for the fall meetings held in October and November.

Two especially fine parts of the program were the address by V. L. Brown of the Arlington Heights township high school, who spoke on "The Measure of a Teacher," and the lecture by Miss Bernice Batchelder, who spoke on "The Modern Trend in Reading." Both were especially helpful and full of inspiration to the teachers and the applause testified amply as to the popularity of both.

Mr. E. J. Tobin spoke on the program for the schools for this coming year as outlined by the county office, showing how the activities were tied up with the school in a worthwhile common sense manner. Dr. Wright of the Cook County Health Dept. spoke on the subject of health and during his speech took up the subject of "trabies" giving some helpful hints what to do in case of a bite by a mad dog. A very interesting lecture on "One Cycle Geography" was given by Mr. Herbert Clark, who explained the trend in geography from the old two cycle system to the new plan whereby the subject is gone over and studied but once instead of twice as in the old plan.

Postal Card Delivered Nineteen Years After Mailing at Elgin Office

Modern transportation has nothing on the covered wagon days of a hundred years ago when it comes to carrying mail from Elgin to Arlington Heights, Ill. It took a postal card exactly 19 years, 4 months and 9 days, to travel between those points. Where the postal card stayed during that time the Chicago postmaster would like to know. He asked Postmaster Helfers for his version of the riddle, but the local postmaster could not even guess. The postal card was addressed to Mrs. Wm. Utteg, 689 Orchard street, Chicago. Mr. Utteg has been a resident of the Old Peoples Home at Arlington Heights six months and on Sept. 11, 1928 there was forwarded to him the postal card above referred to. The attention of the postal service was drawn to the incident by the receipt of the following letter which explains the situation:

Sept. 19, 1928
Mr. Arthur C. Lueder, Postmaster, Chicago.
Dear Sir: I want to thank you in behalf of my father, who received a card on Sept. 11, 1928. This card was postmarked May 2, 11 a. m. 1909, Elgin, Ill., that is slower than the covered wagon days. Just think of it, 19 years, 4 months and 9 days to cover a distance of 38 miles.
Yours respectfully,
Henry E. Utteg, 4019 Long Ave.

The heir to the Japanese throne has just married a young lady with Washington training. He will probably find she has absorbed everything American except the Coolidge view of economy.

LIONS PLAN THANKSGIVING TURKEY FEAST

The Arlington Heights Lions club had another of their good meetings Tuesday night and the thirty-eight members who were present carried back home with them the promise of a real Thanksgiving dinner for their wives. The Lions have had a prosperous year and that dinner is not going to be any piking event. The date is to be Nov. 27.

There were nearly forty present Tuesday night, but there are six others who were absent on business of the club. They were in attendance at a meeting in Chicago that evening to secure first hand information as to the affairs of the county organization of Lions club, and to learn in what way the local club could help Lionism in general. Fred Miltzer was chosen as fall twister by the death of Lion Weber. Wm. Neuman and Roscoe Reed were welcomed into the club with the usual ceremony. Lion Lauren reported upon the progress of the credit bureau. He stated that it had become definitely organized and was now upon its feet and while it was thankful for the start that the Lions club had given the new organization, it was in a position to care for itself. Further details in regard to the credit bureau will appear in our next issue.

Correct Lot Lines On Northwest Highway Is Used By New Garage

There has been more or less talk around Arlington Heights as to the correct lot line upon the north side of the Northwest highway between Highland and Euclid and what would happen to the trees thereon if the street is widened. Mr. Fred Damm is erecting a garage upon his property, fifteen feet back of the true lot line, which discloses that the present sidewalks are only about seven feet in the street, which will tend to crowd out those trees when it becomes a real business street. We understand that a second business block will be erected near the Damm property erected near the Fred Damm property early next year. Mr. Damm was foredoct cut down three trees.

Building Continues On Large Scale Says Durr

Harry Durr, plasterer contractor, reports that the building outlook for the coming winter is excellent. At present his men are plastering in the remodeled Landmeier building. They will next move to the telephone building, after which the gang will split up, some going to Deerfield where Mr. Schaefer is the contractor on a large school. Mr. Durr has only recently finished his part of the work on five homes in the H. Roy Berry subdivision of Mt. Prospect that were erected by G. L. Parker & Son. Dan O'Connor one of his employees who suffered blood poisoning after getting a nail in his hand is in a rather bad condition at an Elgin hospital.

Sigma Deltas Are Entertained By Bride

Mrs. Hilde Hitzemann Gaare of Palatine, a recent bride was host to the girls of the Sigma Deltas Tuesday evening. Bunco was played but the game was nearly broken up when the "blushing" groom walked in upon the girls who could not see any reason why they were not entitled to bestow upon him the customary bridal salutation. The groom escaped the onslaught and the club members returned to their games and later the refreshments. Another member of the club displayed her engagement ring that evening for the first time. Aside from the club members, there were present: Misses Clara and Bertha Gaare and Mrs. Julius Drexler, herself a bride of a few months. The Sigma Deltas is a club of twelve Arlington Heights and Palatine young ladies.

Several States Check Up On Old Autos

A number of states are empowering their motor vehicle license departments to refuse licenses to cars mechanically defective, according to reports reaching the Chicago Motor Club. The reason for this is the charge that where a motor vehicle is fit only for the wrecking yard, it is a hazard on the highway and should not be permitted to operate while it is a menace to life and limb.

An instance of the large number of such vehicles in use in city streets was found in Mt. Prospect where it was estimated that 10,000 motor vehicles were not assessed for taxes owing to the fact that the return of each would be less than one dollar, and that they were only fit for an auto graveyard.

"The person in normal mind health should be able to manage his own mind well. This means that he can adapt himself readily to social and economic conditions and easily control his feelings. To manage advantageously, the impulses, desires, moods, emotions and passions, is to practice the important principles of mental hygiene," states Dr. Alex S. Hershfield, state alienist.

HOSPITAL IS OFFERED TO ARLINGTON

Arlington Heights has a hospital within its grasp, provided, of course, the citizens are sufficiently interested to endorse the project. The visit to Arlington Wednesday of Rev. Mons Peter Bierman and Rev. Joe Adams of Chicago, means that the Catholic church authorities are ready to lend the project their support, and that the hospital can be a reality if Arlington Heights people feel the need of such an institution within its midst. The visitors from Chicago brought word that the cardinal was ready to get behind the movement. The real purpose of their visit was to look over the sites and learn the wishes of local authorities. They inspected several possible locations, some of whom appeared to be well fitted for such a purpose, but they were unable to meet more than one or two of the local business men or officials. A tentative conference is being arranged to bring to the attention of local officials and officers of civic organization the plan under which a hospital can become a reality in Arlington Heights. It is no secret that some such hospital is to be built in one of the Northwest suburbs and that cooperation of local citizens will mean that it will be located in Arlington Heights.

The Catholic church, thru its Sisters of Mercy, is able to bring to community hospitals a working staff that makes possible the financial success of such an institution. The church also stands back of a large part of the financial responsibility involved. They are offering these facilities to this village. The first step taken by them before any definite financing is done, is to learn the desires of Arlington Heights people as to such an institution. If Arlington Heights does not want such a hospital, the matter will be dropped; so far as Arlington Heights is concerned, if the people feel its need, these representatives will proceed to lay their plan before local people.

Mistakes Fire Alarm For Jail Door Bell

Following the fire at the Palatine public school on Tuesday evening, one town was on edge when at a little after one o'clock on Wednesday the siren sounded again. Firemen and citizens poured out only to find that it was a false alarm, earlier in the day deputy game warden Devermann had arrested a hunter of foreign extraction on hunting without a license. The trial was held and a fine imposed by Judge Stroker, but as the violator did not have the ready cash he was locked up pending the return of a friend with the fine money. Said friend arrived about one o'clock and not finding the judge, the game warden or any other official on duty at the jail and the place locked up he pushed the fire alarm button thinking he was ringing the jail door bell, to call someone to take the money and let his friend out from behind the bars. The result which he accomplished, was done in a most unexpected manner. The fire siren roared out and firemen and citizens poured forth from all directions to surround the startled "bell pusher" who readily admitted his mistake, but he got what he was after anyway. Deputy Devermann appeared in a hurry, Judge Stroker came hurrying down the street with two guns and a game bag in his possession which he had been holding as security for the fine and the fine paid. But don't anyone think that its going to be a healthy pastime to turn on that siren just to call someone you want to see, because it isn't just any playful horn who uses that alarm as a door bell, will find himself in the hoose grow to cool off. In the meantime, a whole lot of citizens who never knew that there was a fire alarm box on the village hall found out that there was and it might be a good start for the fire committee on the fire department which he had been holding as security for the fine and the fine paid.

RIVER GROVE WOMAN SHOT IN ARGUMENT

While Mr. and Mrs. Hercules Malapanes of Walnut St. and River Road were arguing over the disposition to be made of the money they expected to receive from the fire insurance company, a gun came into play, and Mrs. Malapanes was shot in the left side of the abdomen. Mrs. Tuttle, mother of Mrs. Malapanes came upon the scene of the shooting a little later and notified the police who sent word to the various hospitals in Chicago and located her at the St. Elizabeth hospital where Mr. Malapanes had taken her. Mr. Malapanes stated, his wife grabbed the gun, and when he tried to take it away from her, it was discharged.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Community Committee of the Girl Scouts met at the home of Mrs. J. Allen Thursday, Oct. 11th and enjoyed an inspiring talk on Scouting by Mrs. Loesch of Des Plaines. There big things ahead for our Girl Scouts and what a pleasure it would be if every mother and dad would visit their daughter on some regular meeting night, and view the good work they are doing and be a Scout with your Scout.

Girl Scouts meet every Monday night at the Presbyterian church at 7 o'clock.

Bowling News

The Kitty Korner five defeated the Kehe Motor team 3 games. The Kitties topped the ten pins for a total of 2885, getting 963, 983 and 839. Dorwaldt of the Kitty Korner squad, rolled 265 the second game, giving him first high single game to date.

The Arlington Candy five lost 3 to the Edelweiss boys, thereby exchanging the cellar position.

Metz Cabs and the Steinke team mixed the pins for a tie in their second game. Metz Cab won the play off thereby winning two out of three. See you Monday.

Distance Finder Swift

With the aid of a new calculating machine invented by Dr. J. E. Howe of the College of William and Mary, an airman can tell in an instant how far he is from his goal; a gunner can use the device as a range finder. The "trigonometer" is simply a triangle that measures itself. It is on the principle of all surveying and range-finding devices which use trigonometry—the science of measurement of triangles.

USED CARS

"with an OK that counts"

Never Before Have We Offered Such Values on Reconditioned Used Cars

—Small Down Payment—Easy Terms!

Never before in our history have we delivered as many new Chevrolets as we have this year. Naturally a large part of this increased business involved the trade-in of the Chevrolet owner's previous car. This enables us to offer some exceptionally fine used cars that have been thoroughly inspected and reconditioned and carry the official red "O. K. That Counts" tag. This tag shows you exactly what has been done to put the car in mechanical condition for thousands of miles of satisfactory service. In buying these reconditioned cars from us you get definite assurance of quality and value—and this week you can buy them at very low prices that make them the greatest values we have ever offered. Make a small down payment and drive away the car of your choice—easy terms for the balance. See these cars today!

A few of our exceptional Used Car Values "with an OK that counts"

1928 CHEVROLET CABRIOLET — fully equipped. 5 new tires. This is the finest used car we have had in the place this year. New car guarantee. $550.00. Terms if desired.

FORD TOURING—Good running condition. $25.00.

1925 ESSEX COACH. A real bargain at $90.00.
OLDSMOBILE TOURING — Good rubber. Runs good. A real bargain at $20.00.

CHEVROLET 1923 TOURING—In good condition. $25.00.

1925 FOR TUDOR—In first class mechanical condition. $125.00. Cash or terms.

1928 CHEVROLET CONVERTIBLE COUPE—Demonstrator. This car is also fully equipped and carries a new car guarantee. $550.00. Terms.

Glorious autumn weather, cheer up.
Indian summer is here in all its glory—live up to it.
Where did you say that new hotel is to be located?
George Weber has returned from his visit with his mother and brother in Pennsylvania and is again in Speedway hospital in the city.

Mrs. Schraeder whose home is with her daughter, Mrs. Schad, has been visiting her son, Crystal, in New York for some time.

Mrs. Kossack and family with Mrs. Whiting and her guest took a motor trip to Fox Lake and vicinity Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilke visited Mr. Oscar Taage and family at Evanston Sunday and found them well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lorenzen have returned to the home of their sister, Mrs. E. C. Smith, having spent the summer with Mrs. Penin at Cary and in the Heights.

A reminder—Of the Parents Auxiliary to the Boy Scouts, Tuesday, October 16, 2:30 afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Fred O. Proctor, W. Campbell street. All mothers of Boy Scouts are urged to attend this most important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall, plan to leave here soon for a three month's trip and visit to Mr. Hall's parents, and his old home in England. They plan to be back here in January.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Hackmiller visited the Steve Adams family at Hobart, Ind. They learned that since leaving here, Mrs. Adams had a case of small pox, but they are all well and doing well now.

The Kraut factory seems to be storing up a lot of health food for winter use, judging from the number employed and the refuse carted away.

Mr. C. E. McWharter and son, Royce Volz, left here last of the week to visit his mother in Kentucky.

Mrs. Edward Bouffard has been entertaining a cousin from Chicago this week.

Little Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scharringhausen of Pine Avenue, has been in a city hospital for treatment this week.

Mrs. Savage from Iowa is a guest of Mrs. F. A. Whiting the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. August Stein have moved into their new home in South Dunton avenue.

Miss Anna M. Balkwill of Detroit and Mr. Wm. A. Frank of Arlington Heights were married Monday evening, October 8, by the Rev. H. A. Kossack in the Presbyterian Mause. Mr. Frank has been a resident here for three years past. His bride is a stranger. Their home will be in North Chestnut street in the future.

Mrs. Schenhofer, from Pennsylvania, accompanied her son, George Weber, to Speedway hospital recently and will visit a few days with her son, Will Weber, in Arlington Heights and her daughter, Mrs. Whetstone of Des Plaines, before returning east.

Mr. and Mrs. Harnish visited Mrs. McWharter Sunday evening. Mrs. Harnish, as Miss Mary McGoughy, was with Mrs. Vera Volz McWharter in Northwestern University. Mr. and Mrs. Harnish are teachers. She in the Karl Schurz and her husband at Cicero.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scott and daughter, Miss Maud, drove up from Edison Park to call on their old neighbor, Mrs. Henry Scharringhausen Tuesday.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall accompanied by Miss Sarah Harris and Mrs. Meredith drove to Mont Clare to attend an Eastern Star function.

Don't forget to get your over Sunday Club bakery sale Saturday afternoon at village hall.

Mr. Charles Fitzpatrick is doing jury service in Chicago this week. The Sewing Bee in the home of Mrs. W. B. Beardsley Wednesday afternoon was a pleasing success. The silver offering for storm sufferers relief, was quite generous.

Mr. Albin Flodine, who has been in Columbus hospital for surgical treatment the past two weeks, was brought home Tuesday. Mr. Flodine is still very weak and it will require time and care to get him back to health.

The Friendly Class, Mrs. Gilbert Klehm and Mrs. George Kost, hostesses, were happily entertained in the Draper home at Hillside Farm Tuesday afternoon. Something over forty guests enjoyed the friendly occasion. Mrs. Rexford

Volz in charge of the program, which consisted of garden projects and other home activities. The business was so absorbing and took so much time, much of interest had to be omitted from the program. Harmonizing with the Harvest Home season. Pumpkin pie formed an engaging place with the choice refreshments. These friendly young women certainly know how to enter into a good time affair and they certainly had just that Tuesday.

Please note—The Womans Club will meet Wednesday, October 17, with Mrs. Hugo Thal. Program, a talk, and pictures, on Russia, by Miss Gertrude Anthony of Berwyn, who spent some time last summer in Russia, and will speak from things she saw and learned while there. Mrs. Beardsley has filled her place on the program, which will otherwise, as in the year book.

Mr. Herman Rardje from Ridgefield, Minnesota, visited Mrs. Caroline Fiene and other friends here recently. Thirty years ago Mr. Rardje was a member of Mrs. Fiene's household and was glad to meet old friends here. He had much of interest to relate of a recent storm which wrought great damage in his place, where he had put twelve dollars worth of glass to repair damages to his own home. One half stone he gathered weighed nine ounces. Surely Arlington Heights has much to be thankful for when we learn of these terrible storms, winds and floods all over the country.

Remember, the benefit card party at south side school, at 8 p. m., October 20. The proceeds for the benefit of the Boy Scouts, especially in equipment for their new camp and other needed things. Remember Saturday, October 20, at South side school.

The Ladies' Aid of the St. Johns Evangelical church will serve a roast pork and beef dinner Thursday evening, Oct. 18, at 6 o'clock at the church basement. Adults 50 cents, children under 12 years, 35 cents. Tickets for sale by members and at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engelking and daughter, Mrs. A. Busse, are leaving for El Creek, Neb., Tuesday morning, Oct. 16, to spend two weeks with their relatives.

Well may the poets sing about October's lovely weather, but we can't forget that Jack Frost, two nights in September nipped all vegetation.

Mr. David E. Styles, Mrs. Padon's brother, a business man of Salt Lake City, is expected here today for a short visit. He writes that there has not been any frost out there this season and no rain since June.

Carl Behrens cannot understand what is so strange about him driving a Ford car even if six days out of seven he is behind the wheel of a Cadillac. The curiosity of his friends were relieved when they learned that the Ford was not his but kept, but really belonged to a Chicago friend.

Friends of the L. G. Allison family have received the following announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Drews announce the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude to Mr. Roswell Theron Allison on Saturday, Oct. 6, 1928, at San Francisco, Cal."

Next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church, following the sermon a collection will be taken for the benefit of the victims of the great disaster in Porto Rico and Florida. Give with a generous hand, feeling thankful you are not one of the sufferers. Do as ye would be done by if you were.

Mrs. Gilbert Klehm entertained the Friendly Class Tuesday afternoon.

The missionary society of the Presbyterian church meets with Mrs. Elfeld Thursday afternoon.

NEWS NOTES

A general assembly was called the fourth period Monday. Mr. Brown opened the assembly by calling the pupils' attention to some of the bad habits which they have cultivated. Mr. Grose then gave the result of the football game with Warren. He said he was very pleased to notice that the spirit which Mr. Cressey and himself have tried to bring to this school was displayed for the first time by the players in that game. He closed the assembly by announcing the game with Palatine October 13 and urging everyone to buy a ticket. The remainder of the period was given over to regular classes.

Coupons were given out Monday for which one could receive an Old Nick candy bar, free of charge. Nobody was forced to take them, but they disappeared rather fast after all. The teachers were privileged persons and received five candy bars.

The general science classes were surprised to learn that the Madgeburg Hemispheres could not be pulled apart after the air had been pumped out of them. Of course, they didn't know until later that it took sixteen horses to pull them apart at Madgeburg.

OUR SCHOOL BAND
In spite of the lack of quarters music activities at the high school have been making marked progress during the past few weeks.

Mr. Sears spends each Monday at the school directing the orchestra and band and giving private instruction in orchestral and band instruments. All those still in the school who played in these organizations last year are present at practice. A number of new faces are also to be seen at rehearsals.

The school has purchased two new instruments a cello and a cornet, both of which will be of great service to the orchestra in particular. The cello is a foundation instrument was especially needed. A number of students are also purchasing their own instruments.

Arnold Fredericks is getting a trombone, Alfred Moehling, a cornet, Gilbert Linneman, a cornet, Clarence Grimm, a cornet, Robert Mors, a trombone, Margaret Klehm a mellophone, Lawrence Ratek a cornet, and John Kinder and Stephen Muran clarinets.

In addition to these the following new students own and play instruments: violin, William Koehler; Norbert Weidner, Isabelle Muehlhausen; clarinet, Marion John, Gwendolyn Topping; trombone, Steve Brodman and saxophone, Vernon Soenker and Russel Davis.

A girls' glee club of twenty-four voices has been organized and holds its weekly practice Wednesday afternoon after school. The club is looking forward to producing an operetta and being of service in school and community activities.

It is hoped that music classes can be started very soon. In these classes the aim will be to develop a general appreciation of good music so that the pupil's interests in the world outside are broadened.

PERSONALS
Civilla Ladd left Monday, Oct. 8 for Kansas City, Mo. She will remain there for two weeks.

Adella Wagner has left school. It is thought she is working in Des Plaines.

Arthur Wells has been absent from school during the past few days. We miss his "Fierce Error." Lone Gourmes was absent because of a sprained ankle.

The history department has nothing of importance to report from its own precinct. However, it attended the football game Saturday and decided that any gang that looked as smart as the one in cardinal did then should be able to make large gains against anything history can offer.

What's the Matter With Our Pep Meetings?
When the two bells ring sometimes during the eighth period, what happens? Everybody knows it's a pep meeting. What do most of the pupils say? One says, "That means we get out of Geometry!" Another says, "Hurray! I won't have to finish that History test!" This is the spirit in which we come to the assembly for pep meeting. Should we boost our team just to be excused from a few minutes of study? If you were to perform before an audience who applauded because they had to and not because they enjoyed your performance, what would you think? You would never want to do it again. Why we have a pep meeting in which everybody yells just because they have to, do you think our team feels like getting out and fighting? Let us try to boost our team in the real spirit and not because we have to, but because we want to.

ATTENDS STATE MEETING
The Home Economics department of the high school was represented by Miss Funk at the meeting of the Illinois State Teachers' association held in Macomb on October 4, 5 and 6.

The key word of the conference was "Home economics" response to changing ideals. Mrs. Sarah Bond Hanley of Mammoth spoke on "Women as Legislators," Miss Cora Winchell, author of a number of texts and member of the faculty of the Columbia, Mo., Teachers' college used the keyword as her subject. Films and their educational value were discussed by W. E. Kopplin of Arlington Heights. Dr. Katherine Blunt of the University of Chicago, and former national president, spoke concerning food research. Dean Margaret Justin of Kansas University and national president of the organization was also a prominent speaker.

Speakers gained at the conference were: "If you cannot accomplish everything yourself, you can at least make a bridge for others to cross," and "We hope to get from these meetings inspiration, information and association."

Miss Funk gained much enjoyment as well as profit from the meeting.

JOKES
Soph: (earnestly) "Now, honestly what would you do if you were in my shoes?"
Senior: (disdainfully) "Get a shine."

Mary: "Where do Fords go?"
Viola: "They don't."

Bob: "What you doing?"
Buddy: "Nothing."
Bob: "How do you know when your done?"

Bill: "I hear Karl was kicked off the squad."
Art: "How so?"
Bill: "He was told to tackle the dummy and he tackled the coach."

Spectator: "I want to see the quarterback."
Ray: "It will cost a quarter."
Spectator: (not seeing the quarterback) "I want the quarter back."

The Better Way
Think of how you can laugh at what you don't like instead of scolding. It makes a much greater impression.

SENIOR PARTY

Was the senior party a flop?? It might have been to some well meaning but disillusioned seniors, you understand, but not to the Freshmen. No, a thousand times "No!" So eager were they to participate in the first social affair of the year that several of them were parked on the steps in front of the school at 6 o'clock waiting for the doors to open and the big party to start.

The party began with a game of buncos for which a first and second prize for girls and first and second prize for boys was given. The prizes given were a compact, a bottle of perfume, a bill fold and a pencil.

Dancing followed. We seniors wonder if dancing is against the religion of the Freshmen. At any rate they showed no inclinations to join us in that frivolity.

It would be a bit pre

NORTHBROOK

Mrs. Emily Mueller left for Foley, Alabama, to spend several months with her son, August and family.

Mrs. Harry Sands was a Chicago visitor Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. H. Therrien were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Alston at a theatre party last Monday evening. After dinner at the Hotel LaSalle they enjoyed Ed Wynn in "Manhattan Mary."

Mrs. G. Schick was hostess to her bridge club on Wednesday, October 10. Luncheon was served at 1:30 with cards afterward.

Mrs. Brown of LaGrange and Mr. and Mrs. Weir of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith last week.

Mr. Jacob Kiest has been suffering with lumbago.

BENSENVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Luepking enjoyed a visit from Mr. Luepking's mother last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kleinschmidt departed for Green Bay, Wis., the first of the week for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. J. White has rented his new residence on Pine Ave., to Mr. Potter who moved in the last part of the week.

Chas. Scherer has disposed of his beautiful home on Center St. and expects to move into Chicago the last of this week. We are willing to bet he will be anxious to move out into a nice quiet suburb town before the year is gone, which town will of course be Bensenville.

Carpenters are busy erecting a large garage at the Orphan home. It is a roomy structure with a large high room in the center for the housing of the big bus, and with a room on either side of it that will accommodate two autos each. It is also reported that another duplex building will soon be erected on Pastoral Ave.

Saturday evening one would have thought that Bensenville had been deserted entirely as the greater majority of our citizens drove to Franklin Park to attend the closing evening of their carnival. About midnight the cars began arriving back here and everyone who attended voiced the same thing "what a wonderful time we had."

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sutherland have returned from their vacation trip spent at Hot Springs, Ark. Frank says "great place" and Mrs. Frank says "a wonderful place to rest up." We are all glad to see them back safe and sound.

Mr. Dominick who owns a cottage on Pine avenue has just finished having it raised and a basement and concrete foundation put in.

Mrs. Albert Tompkins who has been ill for some time is so far recovered as to be able to be taken out daily in a wheel chair. It was a long siege but her many friends rejoice with her over her steady improvement and hope, soon, to see her take her usual part in social activities in Bensenville.

We are informed that Mr. Rodman, who was injured a few weeks ago, is getting along nicely at the Washington Boulevard hospital. His wife and son have moved into the cottage at the Mohawk Golf grounds for the winter.

Friends of the Chas. Scherer family gave a farewell party for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barnath Wednesday evening. The Scherer family have resided here several years and their friends have to see them move back to the city, but we all expect to see them move back to our beautiful suburb before another year rolls around.

Wednesday evening a great many autos were parked on Center street between Wood street and the high school grounds. Upon investigation, we learned that the machines all belonged to relatives of Mr. John Reher and the occasion was his birthday, and his many relatives had gathered at his home to assist him in celebrating the occasion. All enjoyed the evening and departed wishing him many more of the same kind of birthdays.

The Chas. Scherer family moved to Chicago Thursday and we are informed that the John Crouse family will move into the home vacated by the Scherer family the latter part of this week. Mr. Crouse, who has resided in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bishop for several years had to find new quarters as the Bishop family are moving back to Bensenville where Mr. Bishop has taken over the barber shop in the Ed Sprandel building.

Lovers of Francis X. Bushman will be pleased to know that he will appear in that wonderful picture "The Grip Of the Yukon" at the Center Theatre next Sunday evening. Mr. Bushman is always a drawing card and especially so in this great picture. This, as well as the picture "Jazz Mad," which will be shown Saturday evening, are both sure of drawing full houses at both shows. And our readers will be benefited by watching the program in the Register each week for that great picture "King of Kings" which is slated to be shown here within a very short time, so watch for the date, as no one wants to miss that one either. We mention these films to show to our readers that the Center Theatre is putting on the best pictures obtainable at prices within the reach of all show goers and is open every evening except Monday. Bensenville people have something to be proud of in this great show house and the majority of us have attained the habit of seeing the home town show as the very best

Bensenville Boys Go to Stag Field Through the courtesy of interested friends, the Bensenville boys were invited to attend the football game played between Chicago and Wyoming last Saturday at Stag Field. The orphan home bus again came in for its share of usefulness and hauled that happy crowd to the football field, and back home again after the boys had filled themselves hoarse and were filled with joy at seeing Chicago come out victorious. They enjoyed the day and will remember it for a long time. Those responsible for the invitation are to be complimented for their interest taken in the boys.

At the ball game Sunday Wm. Koebemann sprained his left ankle while running from first to second base and will no doubt be laid up for several days. Too bad, but then when old men get young ideas they are apt to get injured. "Bill" takes it all good naturedly and had a lot of book work that he had been unable to find time to catch up with, and now he and the revolving office chair would be quite chummy for the next few days at least.

If any of you townsmen want to spend Halloween in an evening just chuck full of fun and frolic, there's really only one way to do it and that is to be present at the big dance that is to be held at the social hall on Saturday night, Oct. 27. Of course, this is two whole days before the actual day of celebration, but that should certainly tend toward bringing you to the dance, as you will have a couple more days in which to make merry. A dandy orchestra will supply the music, probably Nick, who is much in demand as musical entertainer, for he and his gang can't inspire you to step around, I ask you who can? This event has been planned fully for your benefit, and it is entirely up to you to see that you can be prevailed upon to join the crowd. The price of admission is only 50 cents.

The Pollyanna girls, a club consisting entirely of feminine members, have again sprung into action and have started their meetings both social and business for the coming year. All during the summer months the girls were an awfully lazy bunch and didn't accomplish a single thing, but they have now declared themselves ready to take up bearings now. Their first social meeting will be held sometime in the very near future, undoubtedly on Halloween.

A large and also a very delicious dinner was served in the basement of the Frieden's church Thursday evening. A great many women connected with the church volunteered their services to prepare the meal and receive the eager patrons. There was an abundance of food for the hungry customers, and the price was very reasonable, 50 cents a person. The net proceeds received from the supper amounted to $93, which was surely wonderful gain for one evening.

The Riley family have a number of visitors with them, relatives who will probably remain here for another week or two. The guests are from Minnesota, and seem to be very pleased with our little town, which, since we have our paved roads and places of business, is really not so little after all. Raymond Riley started the entertainment for the visitors last Friday when he staged a birthday party to which all of his friends and acquaintances were invited. The notable event marked the turning of his fourteenth year and makes Raymond quite a grown-up chap now.

The Blume family are still with us but it will not be long before they will make their home in Arlington Heights.

A history club was organized under the leadership of Miss Coomb Tuesday afternoon, and several suggestions were made as to how the association would conduct its affairs. They plan to have debates, historical playlets and will occasionally make trips to Chicago to visit museums and historical institutions.

The King family have moved in to the upstairs apartments of the Schoppe home, on York street, and are very satisfied with their surroundings. Mr. King declares that the trip to the depot is much more easily made now and he can make quicker time. The Kings had not planned to remain in Bensenville during the winter months, but they were evidently so pleased with our little town that they decided in favor of it. We are certainly glad to have them stay with us.

The Floyd house on Garden avenue which was formerly quite a small place is now so much larger that you can scarcely recognize it. They have put an addition on the back wing and have added a pretty and convenient glass-in porch to the front. The home has also been considerably improved upon, and is fit for any king to inhabit.

Mr. and Mrs. Geils went to Chicago and were received at the Medinah Temple and witnessed the installation of officers at the grand chapter of the Eastern Star. This ceremony is very impressive and I am sure it will linger long in the memories of Mr. and Mrs. Geils, who were fortunate enough to witness the installation. Mrs. Wade Williams was also one of those present at the Medinah Temple.

Mrs. Huick has returned from a short visit in Haslecrest, where she was staying with her daughter, who, a short time ago, gave birth to a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marse Cook county line road, have relatives here from Houston, Texas, visiting them, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce. They arrived Monday and will probably remain for a week.

Registration will take place Oct. 16 and 30, respectively. Don't forget to register on one of these days. Mike Haroff and family of Milwaukee, and the Ed. Esper family of Chicago, visited the G. C. Weiss family Sunday.

Miss Florence Stock of Bensenville spent Sunday in Wooddale, returning to Bensenville that evening.

Messrs. Fremont and Raymond Minch circled our fair city in an airplane, October 7.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the Wm. Dohl family, who have lost a dear one in the person of Mrs. Dohl's sister. All of us have been invited to attend the Immanuel Evangelical church at Churchville, Friday evening, October 19, when a missionary from Honduras will show her slides from that field.

For Sale—Parlor stove. Inquire at Wooddale gas station. Phone 153.

Aug Finke celebrated his birthday by giving a party Saturday night. Walter Finke furnished the music. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Franzen had company from River Grove Sunday.

Walter Nielsen took a trip to Round Lake Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mauritzon, Mr. and Mrs. Art Mauritzon of Park Ridge, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rohn of Bellwood, visited at Finke's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scheidel had company from Chicago Sunday.

Miss Katie Lohman visited her uncle and aunt here last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allais are away on a trip to the south.

Miss Anna Armbruster spent the week-end with the Balling family. Miss Bertha Grandt and Mr. Walter Schmidt, were married in Chicago, at the home of Mr. Schmidt's sister, last Thursday. Their friends here, wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Dickman, with her son and daughter, and two grandchildren, of Melvin, Ill., visited at the Lesser and Gisselbrecht homes over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer of Fairmont, Minn., are visiting here, at the John Meyer home.

An infant daughter was born to Mrs. Thompson of Chicago, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rockenbach, last Thursday morning.

The Tennis court which has been under construction during the summer, has been laid out ready for play during the past week. While considerable leveling and packing will be necessary before realizing a smooth hard surface, the court is in fair condition for amateur play, and bids fair to be in good shape for the next season play. A little more volunteer labor is still called for, to complete the court, being that of enclosing the court with the fine wire mesh. The attention of those playing on the court is called to those regulations especially, of wearing tennis shoes and loosening the net on leaving court.

Wheeling Baseball Team Ends Successful Season

The Wheeling baseball team recently closed a most successful season of play. Of a total of 23 games played, they won 15, tied 1 and lost 7 games, eleven of which were played at home and twelve on their opponents' diamonds.

Following are the dates and scores of games won—June 3, Northbrook, 9-4; June 10, Long Grove, 6-2; July 1, Everett, 8-0; July 1, Northbrook, 5-2; July 4, Highwaad, 9-1; July 8, Palatine, 8-5; July 15, Everett, 6-4; July 22, Des Plaines, 2-1; July 29, Northbrook, 6-4; Aug. 18, Deerfield, 10-4; Aug. 19, Everett, 21-9; Aug. 26, Mt. Prospect, 3-2; Sept. 2, Waukegan, 4-2; Sept. 7, Long Grove, 5-2; Sept. 14, Des Plaines, 3-2 in 11 innings.

The following games were lost—May 13, Northbrook, 6-4 in 10 innings; May 24, All Star Rangers, 6-3; May 27, Deerfield, 10-5; May 30, Palatine, 8-7 in 10 innings; June 10, Long Grove, 12-11; Aug. 12, Deerfield, 6-3; Aug. 5, Mt. Prospect, 10-7. The game on July 15, with Deerfield, was tied 2-2.

The team was composed entirely of local players whose names and positions follow—First base, Joseph Behm; 2nd base, Joseph Bellmore; 3d base, Harold Glandt; left field, Edw. Bellmore; catcher, Chas. Becker; infielder, Lester Galitz; short stop, Ted Pieper; pitcher, Chas. Utpadel; fielders, Willard Hank, Clarence Hoffmann, Robt. Utpadel, Herbert Ward, Martin Wolff.

Officers of the club are Willard Hank, manager; Chas. Becker, captain, and Geo. Ward, Sr., secretary and treasurer.

In spite of occasional rumors of "What good things can come of Wheeling," Wheeling baseball team 1928, may well be proud of their record of play during the season. It is hoped that the good sportsmanship of the team may persist through the winter months and reorganize to uphold their record next season.

Quiet Home Ceremony Unites E. Maine Couple

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Schnur, Ballard Road, was the setting for the simple and impressive marriage service performed by Rev. J. Toepel at which Miss Eleanor Schnur became the bride of Mr. Rudolph Teegen, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Teegen of Des Plaines, Saturday, Oct. 6 at 5 p. m.

The charming bride was daintily attired in beaded white georgette and her long white veil fastened in most becoming style. She was attended by her sister, Elsie, as maid of honor who wore yellow georgette and Ella Lewerenz, as bridesmaid. Miss Lewerenz' gown was of orchid crepe satin. Attending the groom were Albert Warnke as best man and Henry Schnur, Jr., as groomsmen.

Only the immediate families of both parties were present at the ceremony and the wedding supper which followed immediately after. No wedding is complete without a charivari and the happy crowd were invited in to help celebrate the occasion. The newlyweds left early Monday morning for a trip to the Wisconsin Dells.

Mr. Teegen, a former East Mainite, is employed by the Benjamin Electric Mfg. Co., and has purchased a home at 1436 Keane avenue, Des Plaines, where they will be at home to their friends. The heartiest congratulations of the community accompany them.

Sunday, Oct. 14, all church members are urged to be present at the quarterly meeting which takes place right after Divine service.

The Ladies Aid will meet at 2 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 14.

Willing Workers will have a special meeting Tuesday, Oct. 16, for the purpose of deciding on some special activity soon.

Sunday, Oct. 21, we will celebrate harvest festival in English at the morning service. Mission service at 2:30. Two young ministers, Rev. E. Plassman of Bloomingdale and Rev. E. Iron of Lake Zurich, will speak German and English.

During the social hours the good ladies will serve supper.

An interesting service will begin at 7:30 p. m. conducted by a gospel team of Elmhurst students. There will be speaking, vocal and instrumental music.

Members of neighboring churches and everybody is heartily invited to any and all these services.

The J. J. Mayer family enjoyed a pleasant reunion Sunday evening at Mrs. Martha Miller's home in Elmhurst. All their children, grandchildren, sons-in-law and daughters-in-law, were present, 19 in all. This reunion was due to the fact that Rev. Theo. Mayer of North Tonawanda, N. Y., had been invited to take an active part in the dedication of the gymnasium of Elmhurst college. Last year he had been the manager of the financial campaign for this gymnasium.

A veteran of the Civil War 84 years old, while attending the annual encampment at Denver, married the matron in the Union Station. It was a case of love at first sight. The old chap was a quick worker.

EAST MAINE

Henry Koch is the proud possessor of a new Erskine sedan.

Miss Selma Lindmeyer of Fairmont, Minn., is visiting at the home of her cousin, Wm. R. Tegtmeyer. She intends to spend several weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finnern entertained a crowd of 75 relatives and friends Oct. 9 in honor of Mr. Finnern's birthday. Following the birthday supper served from 6 to 8, cards for the men and bunco for the ladies were enjoyed and served to pass the time all too quickly.

East Maine public school will hold their annual Achievement meeting and entertainment in St. Matthews school hall, Friday evening, Oct. 26. Everybody welcome. More details later.

Jerusalem Lutheran church at Morton Grove will celebrate their Annual Mission festival Sunday, Oct. 21, and an invitation has been extended St. Matthew's congregation to attend, consequently services here will be dropped that day.

Alma and Amanda, Kath, Mathilda Sternberg, Clara Gowen, Florence Toepel and Mabel Steil, all of East Maine, were entertained at a covered dish dinner at the home of Ruth and Vivian Fiesel, 1400 Ashland avenue, Evanston, Oct. 6. An enjoyable time was spent.

Blockades were erected on Golf avenue last week to enable the workmen to put in new culverts and to grade the same to prepare it for paving early in the spring, contrary to the original plans to lay the concrete this fall.

Although the attendance at the bunco party given by St. Matthews Ladies' Aid Saturday evening, Oct. 6, was not as large as the previous evening when a record crowd was present, the dice rolled as merrily and the game was enjoyed as thoroughly as Friday night. High scores for each night were held by Miss Ethel Jaacks and Mrs. L. Prudeaux. The raffle prizes consisting of a wool blanket, vegetable container, 15-piece cereal set and luncheon set were won by Mrs. Prudeaux, Mrs. Wm. Hammer, Mrs. John Betz and Albert Voss respectively.

Miss Florence Selle was hostess to a crowd of sixteen young folks at a party given in honor of her 'sweet sixteenth' birthday. Various lively games kept the crowd busy and entertained until about 11 o'clock when luncheon was served and soon after the party broke up but before leaving each expressed their enjoyment of the evening and wished the birthday hostess many more happy birthdays.

Cook county road commissioners are building a handsome brick block 50x150 ft. with plenty windows on all sides to furnish plenty light for a repair shop and garage for storing their road building machinery. It will be well protected from winds and storms by the forest preserve on both sides of Ballard road east of Des Plaines.

Ballard road bridge is still closed to traffic. The contractor for this bridge also the bridge on Irving Park Boulevard, seems to have too many jobs on his hands. He has had a big force of helpers working on these jobs nearly a year and both are still closed to public traffic. His contract must call for a large sum or he will lose money on both jobs.

The East Maine Pleasure club have announced that they will close their 1928 baseball season with a fall frolic and dance on Saturday evening, Oct. 20, at the home of Albert Ahrens, Potter Road, near Des Plaines. Everybody is welcome and everything will be done to make this affair more brilliant than any of its precedents. Remember the date and be sure to attend.

Big Program At DesPlaines Theatre

Swegle's Saxo Six is an act that is built along the lines of the famous Six Brown Brothers, and while their offering is mostly real music, they have enough comedy to please everyone. Mr. Swegle is a saxophone soloist of reknown, and all of his men have been members of famous organizations who have travelled throughout the United States. Music lovers will hail this act with delight.

The feature picture will be Fay Wray and Gary Cooper in "The First Kiss." Also J. Gibbs Spring in a novelty organ solo.

The Bush Brothers present scene in an ocean liner with two sailors entertaining with gymnastic feats on the trampoline. Arthur Bush, the comedian, has established a reputation for a comedy stunt which he originated and has exclusively used, which is best described by the apt phrase "Spilling the Beans."

A novel presentation of dances are offered by the Toy Shop Revue, including artistically beautiful ensemble numbers by the five girls, consisting of Russian, Toe and Gypsy dances. Solos are intermingled, featuring contortion and acrobatics.

Knox Wilson and Dean Ardell have an act which is a satire on golf playing entitled "Goofy Golf." Incidentally there are four musical numbers by Knox Wilson who is a capable concertina and saxophone player as well as a funny comedian.

An interesting routine of songs and piano numbers are contributed by Covington and Kent. They are a presentable young duo of entertainers with lots of personality and ability.

Child Of Fred Meeske Receives Serious Injury In Motor Accident

Wednesday about 1 p.m. the cars of R. Glade and Fred Meeske came together on Elm and Busse avenue. Mr. Glade was driving north from his home and Mrs. Meeske was going west on Busse avenue. The car of Mr. Glade hit the right side of the Meeske car and caused considerable damage to this car. The baby boy, who is eleven months old, Mrs. Meeske, her sister-in-law and the Meeske's daughter were also injured but not so seriously as the eleven month old baby whose eyes are critical. We hope this may be avoided. Just how the accident occurred we are not informed, what the result will be can only be a matter of speculation at its best. Mr. Glade's car sustained considerable damage. It is to be repaired. This accident happened, however, would not be so bad if there had been no personal injury and the part that hits the human heart-strings is the innocent 11 month old baby. The time has come when it will be necessary for every citizen or motorist to take a personal pledge to be a Safe and Sane driver under any and all conditions and help the public officials in their duties to preserve peace and the dignity of the people of the village of Mount Prospect.

Local Notes

Hand made gifts are priceless and now is the time to secure them at reasonable prices from O. H. Landeck at Mt. Prospect. When you want something to embroider, better look at the stock Mr. Landeck has in his store for your selection. Rev. A. J. Muller and wife, and Rev. E. Eissfeldt and wife attended the local conference at Palatine at the home of Rev. D. Poellet on Monday.

Some of our prosperous business men, returned from a very enjoyable fishing trip at Austin Lake, Wis. Being very modest gentlemen they asked to have their names withheld from publication.

Prof. Otto Hattstaedt and family of Milwaukee visited with Rev. Eissfeldt at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Noll.

Mr. Louis Hasz returned on Sunday evening from a business trip to Wausaukee, Wis. He reported a terrific storm which took place Friday night. Nanna and Baby Virginia were surely glad to greet their daddy once more.

Mr. Ernst Gosh will be kept busy planting trees next week, beautifying the Lonnquist Club addition with a thousand Elm trees.

The various organizations of St. Paul's Luth. church are laying plans for a solid week, of entertainment varied in forms for the opening of the auditorium when the new school is completed.

Quite a number of our baseball fans attended the Cubs-Sox city series game on Sunday.

Rev. C. Eissfeldt occupied the pulpit in St. Paul's church on Sunday morning as Rev. J. A. Mueller preached at Rev. A. D. Wangerin for their Missouri festival.

Sunday St. Paul's Luth. church will celebrate their annual mission fest services will be held at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. Rev. Streufert of Fairfield will deliver the German sermon in the afternoon, and Rev. Zimmer from Norwood Park the English sermon in the evening.

The Ladies Aid will hold their monthly gathering at the local parsonage, Mrs. J. A. Mueller being hostess.

Motorists should use the utmost care and precaution as they have in their hands a weapon which is as dangerous as any deadly weapon may be. In fact under the statutes of the State of Illinois it has been held that an automobile is a deadly weapon.

We who drive cars day in and day out are sometimes apt to become careless and get the opinion that we are capable of handling our cars to perfection. This is where we make a mistake as the cars are subject to mechanical defects that are beyond our control and it is these things that usually come up when we come into narrow and close places.

Let each and everyone of us use a little more than ordinary care when we sit in the drivers seat and see to it that we are not endangering the limb and life of any of our friends or neighbors. Let us all resolve that we will do all we can to prevent accidents of all kinds and make Mt. Prospect a safe place to drive, walk and live in.

What better can we pledge ourselves than to help each other make the village of ours 100 per cent accident proof on the part of the people who live here.

Game Laws Outlined By Local Warden

To the hunter and sportsman, let us call attention to the Game and Fish Code, and for the benefit of the hunters, we will give below the open seasons (all dates inclusive) on game and migratory birds together with the daily limit.

Bob White Quail, Nov. 10 to Dec. 10, limit, 12.

Brants, Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 8.

Cock Pheasants, Nov. 10 to Nov. 15, limit, 2.

Coots (Mudhens), Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 15.

Ducks (except Eider), Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 15.

Geese, Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 8.

Mourning Doves, Sept. 1 to Sept. 30, limit, 15.

Plovers (Black breasted and golden greaters, and lesser yellow-legs), Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 15.

Prairie Chickens, Nov. 10 to Nov. 21, limit, 3.

Rails, Sept. 16 to Nov. 30, limit, 15.

Snipes (Wilson and Jacks) Sept. 16 to Dec. 31, limit, 15.

The law in reference to hunting fur bearing animals is also very plain and it will be noted that the hunter is not permitted to use a ferret, weasel, guinea pig or rats and also that all song birds are protected, see section 8 to 18 of the Game Code of Illinois. If you desire a copy of the game code, you can secure it from the county clerk.

Also remember that hunting and trapping license are required by all persons regardless of age, who intend to hunt in Illinois (excepting owners and tenants of farm lands and their children. Actually residing on such lands when hunting or trapping on such lands.

There Is No Greater Love Than a Mother

There has come to the attention of the editor a few short stanzas written by a mother, one of our readers, to her son, who is attending school elsewhere. There is probably no mother who reads these few lines, who will not recall similar experiences in her own family. The love of a mother for her son is the same the world over. The stanzas follow:

Mother's Thoughts On Your Birthday
Fifteen years ago, Dear,
God gave to us a child;
A darling loving baby,
Our only Son.

A happy joyous youngster,
Beloved by one and all;
God was good who gave us,
Our only Son.

Thru many nights of watching,
When fever flushed your cheeks;
And death stole ever nearer to take,
Our only Son.

'Twas then, we learned to pray,
Dear,
Oh, Lord, thy will be done;
He sent his guardian angel and spared
Our only Son.

And now Dear, let him lead you,
You can not go astray;
For to the Saviour Jesus, we give,
Our only Son.

YE OLDE REPORTER

Ask dad this way, and stay single.

A young man, who had lately received an important appointment, wrote to his prospective father-in-law as follows:

"I hope my appointment to the curatorship of the museum of antiquities may induce you to trust your daughter to my care."

Newly married wife: "I got the recipe for this pudding over the radio."

Husband: (tasting it) "Not so good, you must have gotten some static mixed with it."

While on a recent trip, Ye Olde Reporter, noticed this street sign in a certain town, here it is:

"When two cars come to a crossing, both shall come to a full stop. Neither shall start till the other is gone."

Would Be Rather Tough.

Tramp: "Can you spare a poor man something to eat?"
Mrs.: (Frightened) "I'll call my husband."

Tramp: "No thanks ma'm I'm no cannibal."

A farmer came to town the other day with a can of cream and demanded a higher price than the market price, and upon being asked why he thought he ought to have more he answered as follows: "The other day one of my cows swallowed my pocketbook, containing sixty dollars, therefore the cream must be a whole lot richer."

"Be it ever so homely;
There's no face like your own."

Mr. Misery could eat no fat,
Nor could his wife eat any lean,
The reason; they were vegetarians,
So all their food must be green.

No more shall I write today,
Will cease right at this point,
For I have no more to say,
And my thoughts seem out of joint.

Bye bye—

Hay Fever Cure

Strings of jade beads are worn by members of the Chinese colony in Seattle to ward off attacks of hay fever and summer influenza. The most potent beads, it is said, must be imported from the stocks of an ancient joss-house in the old town section of Peking.

Banner Registration At Mount Prospect

Mt. Prospect district turned out a wonderful registration on October 6, and the judges who constitute the Board of Registry, will have little work on Revision day, which will be October 16. This means that Nov. 6, the voters will turn out en masse and do their full duty as citizens of the United States. It is a sacred duty of every qualified voter to register and also to vote as the ballot box is the weapon by which we can truly establish a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

It is our individual duty to use our right of franchise and cast our ballot to the best of our ability. We are a part of this government and if we do our part of the work that is cut out for us as citizens, then we will not fail in our duty on Nov. 6.

The Herald does not wish to dictate who the reader should vote for but this paper wants to impress on each and every reader the importance of their duty to go to the polls and cast their ballots for president and every other office in the nation, state and county.

November 6 is a history making date in the United States and it is up to everyone, who is qualified, to do his part to make this history beneficial to the nation, state and county, or forever hold this peace, if the candidate he does not want is elected to office. Your chance to do the right thing is before you. Do it, and you will never regret—fail and you will always repent.

Another thing that the editor would like to impress on the minds of the reader, is that a person failing to do his or her duty in casting a ballot on November 6, is not a 100 per cent citizen, as they are avoiding the main principle of the constitution of the United States, which provides equal suffrage for all.

Vote November 6 and every election, be it big or small.

Park Improvements

The past week has seen the nursery men busy improving our parks. William Busse is making further improvements on his corner at Emerson and the Northwest highway, now that the real estate office has been moved off this property.

Nursery men are replanting and laying out the property in a fashion that will make it a real show place and will cause all that pass it to pause in their travels to look at this beauty spot, in the heart of Mt. Prospect.

Mt. Prospect is proud of its park system. The men who had the foresight to lay this out are men to whom the residents of the village will be forever indebted.

The parks in Mt. Prospect are for the most part on land donated for this purpose by private owners who had the interest and beautification of their home town at heart, and it is also true that the village board, under the guidance of its president, has seen to it that the new subdivisions did their part in putting certain lands in their subdivision aside for park and playground purposes.

When we go over the ground, we find that 90 per cent of the subdivisions did their share of beautifying the village in one way or another, which also goes to show that after they were shown the value of this work, they cooperated to the fullest extent.

Improvement Ass'n. Holds Big Meeting

The Mt. Prospect improvement association held their regular monthly meeting Monday evening. Otto Maleske acted as secretary pro tem in the absence of the regular secretary, A. C. Haake.

The question of membership dues was discussed and it was decided to have a regular pro rata rate for those who desire to become member after the regular period of the membership year which begins January 1.

Several matters were discussed by no action was taken and the meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m. to meet again on the second Monday of November.

The Detroit Free Press is of the opinion that the candidate who talks the least boloney is likely to bring home the most bacon. And it might be added that he who dispenses the least hot air will probably receive the warmest support.
